He managed "Blithswood", Quirindi, NSW (owned by his grandfather).

Married to Helena Hague-Smith, Betty and all her siblings were born there.

There was a family feud over the "Blithswood" property. Two girls sold their portion. Billy thought he had inherited the whole property.

Billy was given a small home in Walcha sold to Walter.

He moved to "Limber", near Tamworth, which he bought.

Then share farming a dairy near Tamworth

Then to Armidale, He built a house "Moor Park" on 40 acres with Cherry Orchards and 2 other fruits. Also an Apiary and a Metal Quarry.

There was a spring on the property. (The property was lost in the depression)

On his small portion of "Tiara" he lost his sheep when they ate sheep dip powder.

In ill health he got a block of flats in Manly where he and Helena lived.

The business side was managed by Ted.

He had ostio-arthritis in the hip and died aged 82 .

At one stage he had 2 properties in Elizabeth Bay. The agent who collected the rent went bankrupt.

Billy got about 1/- in the pound.

Helena (Nan) lived on her own in a flat at Northwood until about age 83, then lived with Betty.
